RESEARCH AND PUBLICATION

AUTHOR GUIDELINES

IIUC STUDIES is a multidisciplinary annually research journal of the International Islamic University Chittagong (IIUC). Academicians, practicing executives, or any researcher may contribute their articles to regular issues of the journal. Articles after favorable recommendations of two blind reviewers will finally be selected for publication by the Editorial Board.

INTRODUCTION

Articles on contemporary issues in the field of Qur'anic Sciences, Da'wah & Islamic Studies; Computer Science, Communication Engineering & Information Technology, English Language & Literature, Law, Business and Management, especially from Islamic perspective are appreciated. Contributions offer constructive ideas and analysis, and highlight the lessons to be learned from the experiences of different nations and societies.

In furnishing your manuscript, please read these guidelines thoroughly, paying particular attention to the sections on References, Endnotes, Figures and Tables. Ensure that the formatting requirements specified in this document are followed or the paper will be returned to you. Careful adherence to IIUC Studies House Style expedites the editing/publication process, ensuring a better finished product. We urge you to be particularly vigilant in adhering to these requirements.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

1. Your manuscripts must be original and written in good American English. Authors must edit their text to eliminate possible grammatical or spelling errors and to conform to correct scientific English.
2. The author should retain a complete copy of the manuscript.
3. Three (3) copies of article(s) should be submitted to the Editor of this journal in font 12, Garamond on A4 size papers.
4. Plagiarism: The journal editorial board deals with this issue seriously. In order to avoid plagiarism and increase your manuscript's likelihood of publication, paper must go through Turnitin screening, and the expected level of similarity index is 15% with less than 3% matches from a single source.
5. Articles will be accepted for publication on the understanding that they are subject to editorial revision. Papers should be submitted in a form suitable for sending anonymously to two blind reviewers (as may be required).
6. Manuscript must be double-spaced throughout (except abstract) with generous margin, on one side of the paper only. They should be sent in Microsoft Word format.
7. After acceptance of the article(s), the authors will be asked to submit their copies in the DVD, in final form.
8. The paper should have a minimum of 6,000 words and not exceed approximately 10,000 words, exclusive of References, Endnotes, Figures and Tables. However, Invited only Review Articles may be between 8,000 - 15,000 words. These review papers are to be submitted only upon invitation and if an author is interested in submitting a review paper, they can submit an abstract to the editor for a preliminary assessment.
9. The title of the manuscript should be on the first page of the paper along with the abstract and keywords. Language within the text that suggests the authors' identities should be avoided. In addition, the manuscript 'Properties' should be erased prior to submission. Any 'Track Changes' should also be removed.
10. To permit anonymity, the authors' names should not appear in the manuscript. Instead, a cover page giving the title of the article and full identifying information hard mail and email addresses; and the telephone and fax numbers (with country and area code) for the corresponding author who will serve as the contact throughout the editorial process. Contact details must be kept up-to-date by the corresponding author.

11. The cover page should be followed by an informative abstract of no more than 150-170 words long – clearly written to convey the salient features of your paper. A list of 4–6 key words, in alphabetical order should be provided below the abstract. Keywords should express the precise content of the manuscript as they are used for indexing purposes. Paper type also be mentioned immediately after keywords.
12. Footnotes should not be used. Endnotes should be provided on a separate page immediately following the text under the heading NOTES. Endnotes should offer significant comment, not merely cite references. They should be kept to a minimum.
13. Please ensure the figures and the tables included in the single file are placed next to the relevant text in the manuscript, rather than at the bottom or the top of the file. Tables and figures should be numbered separately. Tables use Roman numerals and figures use Arabic numerals (Table I, Table II; Figure 1, Figure 2).
14. The paper should begin from the second page. The first page should contain the title, name of the author(s), affiliation, address, telephone number, and e-mail address if available.
15. The responsibility for opinions in the published articles or other comments goes on their authors.
16. Two (2) copies of the Journal will be made available to the author(s) free of charge. The authors may purchase additional copies at subsidized rates fixed up by the IIUC authority.
17. References should be numbered alphabetically by author at the end of the manuscript. Please see the Reference section for details.

REFERENCES

References should contain: where applicable, author(s) name(s), year of publication, article title/book title, journal/chapter title, volume number/book chapter and the pagination must be present. Use of DOI is highly encouraged. Books must include the location and name of the publisher. References should be listed alphabetically by author at the end of the manuscript. In the text, where the author's name appears, the date should follow in parentheses, e.g., Mintzberg (1985). If the author's name is not present in the text, insert it with the author's name and date in parentheses, e.g., (Mintzberg, 1985).

Multiple references should be listed alphabetically in parentheses, separated by semicolons e.g., (Jackson, 1996; Watson, 1986).

Page numbers, to indicate a passage of special relevance or to give the source of a quotation, should appear in parentheses as (Willmott, 1992: 12).

If there is more than one reference to the same author in the same year, postscript the date with a, b, c, etc. e.g., (Sparrow, 1998a). Other than text, please consult as follows;
